

RunYourCourse

Run your course instead of organizing it!

We are very proud to present RunYourCourse v1.0, our brand new product that will allow you to run your courses instead of spending all your energy and time on getting them organized. RunYourCourse will facilitate and automate your course organization and administration, allowing you to focus on your customers and course participants!

TOP FEATURES

Manage course information

Store and manage all necessary information on your courses to be able to publish, sell and organize them. Includes stuff like course content, trainer data, dates, venue, discounts, certifications, etc.

Handle course registrations

Allow participants to register to your courses via different channels, collect their data and specific wishes. Includes handling special cases such as discounts, waiting lists, etc.

Participant emailings

Send both automated as customized emails to all or individual participants.

Customer invoicing

Track invoicing data and automatically send invoices to customer and participants after attending a course.

Trainer support

Provide all necessary information and tools (material lists, presence sheets, reminders, etc.) to your trainers.

OUR SUPER SERVICE

We don't want you to worry about hosting or running RunYourCourse, so therefore we assure you:

- ▶ Top quality hosting on our servers
- ▶ 24/7 availability and high performance
- ▶ Your data is secure and private

Integration is key!

We realize you are currently using tools and products you don't want to lose. Therefore, RunYourCourse seamlessly integrates with all major existing products and services.

Some examples of what is possible:

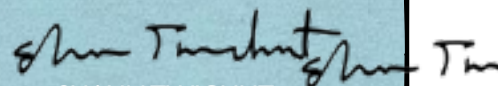

- publishing and updating courses on your website using the course and trainer data in RunYourCourse.
- Collecting subscriptions on various devices, using your website or our custom app's.
- Integrating with your CRM system to centrally manage clients etc.

KATRIJN DAANS - COURSE MANAGER AT ILEAN

"I am so happy we selected RunYourCourse for managing all our courses. Hooking it up to our existing website was peanuts and it even allows us to manage stuff such as certifications etc. It generates most of the emails and reminders we used to handle manually, saving me a lot of time. And I can use it on my iPhone, allowing me to react to customers immediately."

"I have never been so proud about one of our products. RunYourCourse is great!"
